

LANG REALTY WELCOMES EXPERIENCED AGENT MALLORY MORSE

Highly dedicated Real Estate Professional Mallory Morse recently joined Lang Realty's roster of award winning Agent Specialists. Mallory spent seven years as a Sales and Rental Agent for a Brokerage in Manhattan, New York, followed by five years as an on-site Residential Sales Manager and Community Lifestyle Specialist for a well known builder/developer in South Florida.

Mallory's #1 priority is to meet the needs of every Lang Realty client. Over the years, Mallory has earned the trust of her clients by carefully following their individual criteria as she meticulously and creatively identifies properties that fulfill their requirements. Prior to embarking on a career in Real Estate, Mallory was the Founder/President of a Model Scouting and Placement Firm for sixteen years. Her warm and friendly personality, and extensive experience scouting potential talent, contribute to her strong ability for putting new Real Estate clients at ease, particularly when asking probing questions to qualify them, and determining their needs and wants. "I am extremely proud that many of my Florida buyers sent commendation letters to the owner my former builder/developer workplace, praising my total involvement with them, from deposit to contract, through construction and well past closing." says Mallory.

In 2007, Mallory received earned the highest producer award given by her former builder/developer employer in the Florida East Division. Additionally, she has been featured in the Palm Beach Post, Sun Sentinel, and Florida Kitchen and Bath Magazine. When working in New York, the Brokerage recognized her as the number one producer among five hundred agents. Additionally, she was featured in Real Estate newsletters for outstanding sales and marketing achievements. Mallory participates in Real Estate training opportunities on a regular basis to ensure that she is well informed on the constantly changing market. "Mallory is a top producing, highly motivated Real Estate Specialist, with a successful and varied career, blending a broad range of both sales and management experience. She undoubtedly will be a strong contributor to the Lang Realty Team." remarks Scott Agran, President of Lang Realty.

Mallory works out of the Palm

Mallory Morse

Beach Gardens Lang Realty Office and can be contacted at (561)445-4781 and m.morse@langrealty.com

Lang Realty is one of South Florida's top independent residential real estate companies, with over 230 full-time professionals. The mission at Lang Realty is to provide the highest level of service to clients who are looking to buy or sell within Palm Beach County, through partnerships with the finest real estate agents in the area. Lang Realty has six offices within Palm Beach County. For more information about Lang Realty and agent opportunities, please contact Scott Agran at 561.989.2100 visit www.langrealty.com.